Payor Source Information

Medicare pays for the cost of inpatient rehabilitation provided you meet criteria at admission and during your stay. The Medical Director will make the decision whether you meet criteria, but it is always subject to review from Medicare.

Private insurance, Medicaid, and managed care benefits will be verified prior to admission and pre-authorization for admission obtained. This is not a guarantee of payment. Throughout your stay, hospital utilization review personnel will work with your insurance to obtain continued authorization.

Third party funding sources such as Worker's Compensation and Vocational Rehabilitation can be explored as needed.
